Deshraj Singh Kushwah & ors Vs The University of Raj & anr

7.9.2006

Hon'ble Mr Justice Ashok Parihar

Mr SC Gupta - for petitioners

Mrs Anupama Chaturvedi - for respondents

BY THE COURT:

Petitioners have challenged the order dated 9.4.2005, by which, their names have been struck off from the roll on the ground of shortage of attendance. Petitioners have alleged that the respondent Institution has deliberately, with mala fide intentions, deprived the petitioners from attending the classes. This court, vide order dated 23.3.2006, directed the Dy Registrar (Examination) of the University of Rajasthan, Jaipur to conduct an enquiry and submit the report regarding factual position which is alleged by the petitioners. As per directions of this court, the Dy Registrar (Examination) has already submitted his report which has been placed on record by learned counsel for the University. As per the report, the petitioners' attendance in the B Ed course is much less than the required percentage. It has also been reported that repeated notices have been issued to the petitioners for attending the classes, however, in spite of notices, they have been absenting from the classes. The Dy Registrar (Examination) has also reported that the allegations against the authorities of the Institute are also baseless.

In view of the report so submitted by the Dy Registrar (Examination) as per the directions of this Court, in the facts and circumstances, no further interference is called for by this court.

The writ petition is dismissed accordingly as having no merits.
